Foreword

The yearbook represents the sum total of the school experiences of all students, especially culminating the activities, records, and history of the Senior Class. The 1962 yearbook is a joint effort by the Senior Classes of the Bentleyville Building and the Ellsworth Building and will represent a milestone as the end of one era in the educational processes and the beginning of one replete with greater educational possibilities and opportunities for the young.

Let this book serve as a memorable record showing that the young people can accomplish what at first seemed an insurmountable task.

The Board of School Directors, the Administration and some departments of the faculty have been working jointly and with the exception of the Senior Class, the people shown in this book wil be together next year. But remember, the 1962 Senior Class part was important and each succeeding senior class will have more reason to be proud of the school from which they are graduating and with the pride comes increased responsibilities to carry on in such a manner that the school will be proud of the Class of 1962 as the pioneer who helped establish the first-----

Lewis P. Angotti
Supervising Principal

My book holds many stories, wrapped tightly in itself.
And yet it never makes a noise but waits
upon my shelf
Until I come and take it; then soon my book and I
Are sailing on a memory sea as fleeting past goes by.

YEARBOOK STAFF AT WORK

Lynn Wiggins

"Order now! Deadline April 2". These were the familiar words heard around school not so very long ago. But what was the purpose? Why all of the yelling? Well, it was because of this years combined yearbook. Not too many persons are too familiar with what is going on. Maybe I can be of some help.

First off we had to select a good title. By "we" I mean, Lynn George, John Hamilton, Editors-in-chief; Lynn Wiggins, Ronnie Skiles, Layout editors; Arlene Fitch, Marlene McKay, Copy editors; Lorraine Kurilla, Nancy Ball, Senior Editors; Jack Lilley, Frances Madera, Art editors; Louis Delattre, Sonia Maczuzak Business Managers; Carol Toth, Joan Petrisek, Typing Managers.

After some very hard thinking and debate we decided on the fine name of "Ben -Ell." This name seemed very appropriate and was voted in unanimously.

Next came the cover. You are probably asking yourself what could be so hard about getting a cover. So here is the story. We first had to decide upon the colors. Was it going to be Black on Gold or Gold on Black? We decided on the Gold on Black. Next was the type of cover. Was it going to be a padded cover as Bentleyville's previous covers or was it the hard cover of Ellsworth. The toss up came out to be the padded cover. Now the emblem. What were we going to use as an emblem? The "Bearcat", our school mascot, was chosen. But what does a Bearcat look like? Is there really such an animal? For this information we sent to St. Vincents College. We did this because the Bearcat is also their mascot. The people at St. Vincent's were very kind and sent us a lot of useful information, such as, yes, there is really an animal called the Bearcat. Additional information will be placed in the yearbook. They also sent us a picture of the Bearcat. He resembles a bear with a pointed nose and pointed ears. This is the picture that will be found on the cover of our "62" year book.

Now to meet our deadline which was set for April 15. This was going to be rough but with everyone doing his job we were certain we could do it. So we went to work. The Senior editors were busy collecting information for the senior pages and the data sheet. The layout editors have the job of compiling all of the information turned in and get the book in order. The copy editors were busy getting names of students & identifiing pictures. The Typing editors were busy getting all of the names and material typed up into readable form. The business managers were busy getting patrons for our book. This took skill. The artists have the job of drawing those little pictures that are needed for illustration. Now for the Editors; they had the hardest job of all, getting the other editors to do their work. With every one scurrying around we were bound to meet our deadline. We just had to!

You may be wondering what to expect in this years yearbook. Although you will have your own opinions, mine is a good one. This years yearbook should be very much a success. With your help it is sure to be.

WE SALUTE . . . .

The Bentleyville-Ellsworth Area High School Band has just recently completed its first football season. As is always true of the half-time shows created and directed by Mr. Edward Guglielmi, our very responsible and praise-worthy band director, each show was very original and entertaining.

The season began with a show built around selections from recent Broadway hits. In the formation of an oil derick, the band played "Hey, Look Me Over" from the Broadway musical, "Wildcat"; in the form of a sailboat, "I Ain't Down Yet" from "The Unsinkable Molly Brown"; in the form of three ascending musical notes, "Do Re Mi."

In compliance with the trend this year, the band performed a show with a Civil War theme. In related formations "Dixie", "Yankee Doodle", "America the Beautiful", and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" were played.

With great pride we salute Mr. Guglielmi for the wonderful job he has done with this group of over ninety students, many of whom are on the junior high level. Through patience and perseverance he has made an organized unit of two formerly unrelated groups.

Mr. Guglielmi resides in Belle Vernon, Pennsylvania with his wife and two children. He received his degrees from Duquesne University. He has been band director, choral director, and music teacher at Ellsworth High School since September, 1950. Currently he is the director of the Bentleyvile-Ellsworth Area High School Band.

CHRISTMAS AT B-E

The highlight of the season was a program presented by the B-E. chorus at the December meeting of the P. T. A. The chorus, directed by Mr. McFayden, sung "Chimes for a Holy Night" among their selection of carols.

Bentleyville-Ellsworth Won 3 Lost 4 Tied 1

Coaches Di Nardo, Scott, Milchovich, Kozloff

Brownsville 32 Ben-Ell 13

A tough Brownsville team held us scoreless the first half, but the Bearcats broke loose when Ron Martes fired to Ron Skiles placing the ball on the 4, then Jerry Blackburn took it over for the TD. In the 4th quarter, Gary Quattro passed to Loren Schoenheltz for the final TD. Skiles kicked for the extra point.

Ben-Ell 6 South Fayette 7

In probably the hardest fought game, the S.F. tema found a rabbits feet, for our Bearcats were thwarted at almost every turn. In fact, we threatened to score six times but the opposition would not yield, and as a result, we were defeated by a scrappy team that would not lose. Ron Skiles thrilled us with a 17 yard run for a touchdown for our six points.

Ben-Ell 19 Frazier Memorial 0

The Bearcatsled by Perri and a ssuperior line won its first game of the season . This was Perri's game as he flashed excellent leadership by scoring two TDs and handing off to Ron Skiles for the third.

Ben-Ell 20 West Greene 7

The Bearcats scored twice in the second period, when Perri plunged 4 yards and then threw a pass to Ron Martes covering 65 yards for a TD. In the second half, we did it again, this time by throwing to John Adams who scampered over. Ed also threw this pass. This last TD was good for 28 yards.

Ben-Ell 19 Avella 21

Missed extra points were agin costly to the Bearcats. The Bearcats opened scoring in the second period with Ed Perri going over from the 5 yard line. A touchdown run of 55 yards by Ron Skiles cut the Avella edge to 14 to 13. The Bearcats came within two points of the Eagles on a seven yard pass from Ron Skiles to end Loren Schoenheltz.

Ben-Ell 6 Mapletown 6

The game played on a very cold, muddy field held both teqms back. After trailing all the game by the score of 6 to 0, Gary Quattro scored from the one yard line with only a minute remaining. The try for the extra point was short and the game ended ina tie.

Ben-Ell 24 West Newton 7

With four Ben-Ell gridders sharing the scoring honors, the Bearcats came out on top by the score of 24 to 7. Jerry Balckburn opened the scoring by skirting 12 yards for the TD. John Adams hauled in a 12 yard pass from Gary Quattro to put the Cats ahead for good, 12 to 7. In the final i2 minutes, the cats had two touchdowns sprees with Ed Perri going 35 yards for paydirt and Denny Meszaros snaring a pass from Gary Quattro on a play covering 40 yards.

Ben-Ell 6 Jefferson-Morgan 13

Jefferson-Morgan ended Bentleyville-Ellsworth's first football season on a sour note, handing the Bearcats a 13-6 loss. The loss gave the Bearcats a season record of 3-4-1. The lone tally for the Bearcats came in the third period after the Rockets fumbled on their own 39-yard line. The big ground gainer was a 43 yard dash by Faust Denicola which moved the ball right down to the goal line. Ed Perri scampered around end for the score.

Bearcats Take Section

The Bentleyville - Ellsworth Bearcats are the champions of Section 18 basketball for the year 1962.

The Bearcats clinched a berth in the WPIAL Class B playoffs Tuesday night by downing Jefferson-Morgan 49-39 for their 11th win with no defeats in league competition. Last Friday night,they bombed Cumberland 80-56 as John Hamilton, the only senior on the squad, bucketed 27 points.

Coaches Stephen Telleck and John Sylvester are mentors of the Section Champs ,having put the team together this year for the first time with hardwooders from both Bentleyville and Ellsworth high schools.

Bearcats At Fieldhouse

The Bentleyville - Ellsworth Bearcats weatherd a shaky first half and then made a valient comeback in the closing seconds to win 48-47 over Perryopolis in a heartstopper last Thursday night at Monessen.

The victory put Coach Steve Telleck's five in the semifinal matches of the Class B WPIAL tournament slated for last night at the Pitt Fieldhouse.

Coach Steve Telleck's first edition of the B-E Bearcats had the fans buzzing at halftime in the spacious Pitt Field House last week and hopes for a WPIAL crown for the underdog home team were never brighter as they led by 11 points in the semi-final elimination game.

But all hope faded fast as the Bearcats were stampeded by what seemed like a drove of Avonworth Antelopes who fought their way to a tie at the third stop and won going away 54-45.

Avonworth turned the tables on the Bearcats who themselves had eleminated Perryopolis in similar fashion a few days earlier.

The Antelopes ,however, faltered themselves in the second half of the WPIAL title game Monday night, bowing out to the new champions, Edgewood, 52-39.

John Hamilton, the team's lone senior was high scorer for the Bearcats in their debut before 4,062 fans at the Field House, just as he was during the regular season of play. He had 14 points. He garnered ten of those in the first half and was held scoreless in the hectic third period.

John Adams was runnerup scorer for the Bearcats with 13 while Dewey Wilkens and Ed Perri were held to just 8 points advantage and still held a 29-21 lead at the half.

It was not until 3:50 remained in the game that the Bearcats closed the gap on a basket by Dewey Wilkens. Jerry Blackburn put the Bearcats ahead 44-42, but Perry kept nudging and went ahead again 45-44.

Wilkens, again on a quick pass from Ed Perri, put B-E ahead 46-45.

John Hamilton fired two free shots for a 48-45 advantage with less than ten seconds remaining. Dave Stolarik made the game closer with a final two pointer.

Wilkens set the pace for the Bearcat scoring with 17, while Perri had 12, Hamilton 11, Blackburn 6 and Adams 2. Reserves Ray Orsatti and Gary Quattro saw action in the game and figured in the ball control in the late stages of the game.

BEARCATS IN D M F L EVENT

On April 2 the sixth annual Donora Midget Football League undergraduate Basketball tournament began. BE boasts a well-balanced attack with Ed Perri, Dewey Wilkens, Jerry Blackburn, Ray Orsatti, Gary Quattro, John Adams, Loren Schoenholtz, Greg Matosky, Ron Kurnick, and Frank Smith.

Opening the tournament with a victory, BE topped Charleroi's B-team, 53-42. Then went on to edge Mon-Valley Catholic, 50-49 in overtime. In the unbeaten bracket, Charleroi's A-team was upset, 49-35 by BE. The Beacats continue their rampage over AA schools by a win over Duquesne, 38-37.

The tournament which will last six days, will award trophies to the two best teams.

In the playoffs for the championship of the Donora undergrad league, the Bearcats bowed to Duquesne in a close three - point decision, 55 - 52. This left the Bearcats as runnerups. The trophy presented to the Bearcats can be seen at Central Garage.

LYNN GEORGE REPRESENTS B-E AT MON-VALLEY TOURNAMENTS

A senior cheerleader, very active in activities, Lynn George represented B-E at the Mon-Valley tournament. The tournament lasted one week, ending with a banquet at the Park Casino for the basketball players and the ten girls representing district schools.

After being interviewed by three judges, Lu Ann Amodie of Charleroi was crowned queen. Each girl received a trophy.

JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE SELECTS THEME "MOON RIVER"

Junior class presidents, Janet Ames and Jerry Blackburn, announce that the joint junior prom committee is busily planing for a gala affair on May 4. The Ellsworth auditorium will be decorated in the atmosphere of a southern garden, with Johnny Cimino and his orchestra on stage, the deck of our riverboat.

Seniors, faculty, administration, and the joint school board are included on the guest list.

DRAMATIC CLUB CELEBRATES TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Ten years ago a Dramatic Club became a reality at Bentleyville High School. The idea was submitted by Miss Nelson, so she and Miss Kilonsky have sponsored it up to the present time. David Bell was the first president; John Griffith holds the office now.

At the end of each year an open house is held for the public. This affair consists of five one-act plays with every member participating. The public attends by invitation only; refreshments are served after the productions. This year the tenth anniversary of the club will be celebrated by a full scale open house consisting of the five best plays the club has ever produced.

The Dramatic Club has inspired students to continue in drama arts in further education, stabalized stage shy actors with a feeling of security, and gave each member experience in group participation and amicable debate.

Dramatic Club Banquet

On April 26 the last meeting of the Bentleyville Dramatic Club was held with a banquet at The Mansion House in Old Concord.

After the dinner, a one-act play entitled "Come Live In My House" was presented. Pins were presented to all members of the club.

JO ANN PIGFORD, CROWNED BELLE OF THE JR. PROM

MOON RIVER, the theme of the Junior prom was beautifully illustrated by the decorating scheme of a southern garden worked out by the B-E Juniors. Center of attention was a huge show boat, MOON RIVER, built around the stage and on whose deck played the orchestra of Johnny Cimino. Fountains, gold fish, flowers, and more flowers created an atmosphere for a most enchanted evening.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Belle of the Prom, JO ANN PIGFORD, and her escort KENNY PATTERSON. JoAnn, whose name was drawn from all of the girls at the prom, was presented a dozen red roses by Jerry Blackburn and Mary Lynn Ames, presidents of the Jr. Classes.

F. H. A.

Our chapter is very proud of the outstanding leadership shown by two of our joint-area members. At a meeting, on October 2, of the newly formed Washington County F. H. A. Council, our Ellsworth representative, Rita Shackelford, was elected president; while Marion Hufford, the representative of Bentleyvlle, was elected to serve as vice president. Twenty-nine Ellsworth girls and five girls from the Bentleyville F.H.A. attended the "Region B" F.H.A. meeting held at the Hopewell Township High School on Saturday, November 4.

Rose Washlack and Janice Ladisic led the group singing accompained by Kay Kefover. The group then was divided into discussion groups. A Leadership Team was composed of four girls from Ellsworth; leaders were Rita Shackelford and Karen Morgan; recorders were Tina Galensky and Mary Hill.

F.H.A.

Theresa Galensky, Mary Hill, Rose Washlack, Bonnie Swagler, Mary Lou Kepenach, Karen Morgan, and Mrs. Teale attended the State Farm Show, Harrisburg, where four of the girls took part in a demonstration entitled "Cover To Match." The demonstration included animated illustration of how to cover buttons, belts and belt buckles ,and earrings to match and trim outfits to give that "finished look." The six girls received State Homemaker Degrees in the forum of the Education Building. Our F.H.A. is proud to have so many State Homemakers chosen for this honor. The group toured the State Capital Building, and the Hershey and Reese Candy Companies.

The F.H.A. has a new money making project! We are selling cookbooks containing favorite recipes of American Home Economic Teachers. Included with the 2000 recipes are many helpful hints on the preparation and buying of meats. If interested pleased contact a member of the F.H.A. or Mrs. Teale. Remember those hope chests—we might be able to use these cookbooks for future reference. They also make nice inexpensive shower gifts. Cost $2.95.
